NEW RELEASES

Unicorns

15 | 2hrs | Screening from 5 July

A powerful story of forbidden love and colliding cultures unfolds when hard-working single father Luke meets beautiful, seductive drag queen Aysha in this mesmerising romance from directors Sally El Hosaini and James Krishna Floyd.

The Nature of Love

15 | 1hr 52m | Screening from 5 July

This smart, steamy romantic comedy from writer Monia Chokri, which had its premiere in the Un Certain Regard section of Cannes, follows the transformative awakening of philosophy professor Sophia after the arrival of labourer Sylvain in her comfortably settled life.

Orlando: My Political Biography

12A | 1hr 39m | Screening from 5 July

From acclaimed writer and activist Paul B. Preciado, Orlando: My Political Biography is a bold and joyous celebration of trans identity, told through the lens of Virginia Woolf's iconic novel.

MaXXXine

18 | 1hr 44m | Screening from 5 July

In Ti West's electrifying finale to his throwback 'X' slasher trilogy, a trail of blood across 80s Hollywood threatens to reveal the sinister past of aspiring actress Maxine Minx (the showstopping Mia Goth, Pearl) and thwart her dreams of becoming a star.

Experience a triumphant slasher triple bill on 6 July with Pearl, X and MaXXXine.

In a Violent Nature

18 | 1hr 34m | 1hr 55m | Screening from 12 July | Book Now

A future horror classic viewed from the terrifying perspective of its undead killer, this gnarly, ingeniously framed slasher from director Chris Nash is a visceral descent into terror.

The Commandant's Shadow

12A | 1hr 43m | Screening from 12 July

Daniela Völker's timely and poignant documentary follows Hans Jürgen Höss, the 87-year-old son of Rudolf Höss (the Commandant of Auschwitz) as he confronts his father's terrible legacy for the first time.

Longlegs

18 | 1hr 41m | Screening from 12 July | Book Now

Maika Monroe (It Follows) and Nicolas Cage (Mandy) lead this masterclass in horror cinema from director Oz Perkins (son of Norman Bates himself), as an FBI investigation to hunt a serial killer spirals into an occult nightmare.

Janet Planet

Certificate TBC | 1hr 53m | Screening from 19 July

In this stunning debut, Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Annie Baker captures the experience of passing time and wondrous imagination through the eyes of a child, along with the indescribable feeling of a daughter's forever-changing relationship with her mother.

Crossing

15 | 1hr 46m | Screening from 19 July

From acclaimed director Levan Akin (And Then We Danced), Crossing is a moving and tender tale of identity, acceptance and unlikely connection that transcends borders and generations, as retired teacher Lia sets out on an emotional journey to Istanbul in the hopes of reuniting with her estranged transgender niece Tekla.

Thelma

12A | 1hr 38m | Screening from 19 July | Book Now

June Squibb shines in her first leading role, as a 93-year-old grandmother who sets out on a motorised scooter mission to reclaim scammed money, in this irresistible Sundance favourite action-comedy.

Thelma* is also playing as this month's Silver Screen film on the 24th of July.

Chuck Chuck Baby

15 | 1hr 41m | Screening from 19 July

Louise Brealey (Sherlock) is sensational in this irresistible British musical comedy from director Janis Pugh, as chicken factory worker and caregiver Helen's mundane existence is turned upside down with the return of an old flame.

I Saw The TV Glow

15 | 1hr 40m | Screening from 26 July | Book Now

Jane Schoenbrun's hypnotic sophomore feature is an introspective queer coming-of-age horror gem, following the dreamlike digital tale of teenager Owen, as he becomes lost in the haze of mysterious late-night TV show 'The Pink Opaque'.

Want to see the mind-bending debut from Jane Schoenbrun? Look no further as we're screening We're All Going to the World's Fair in August!

The Echo

Certificate TBC | 1hr 42m | Screening from 26 July

Tatiana Huezo's (Prayers for the Stolen) stunning documentary portrait of the El Eco village in the Mexico Highlands offers a child's-eye poetic exploration of its extraordinary cycle of nature.

About Dry Grasses

15 | 3hrs 8m | Screening from 26 July

From master Turkish filmmaker Nuri Bilge Ceylan (Once Upon a Time in Anatolia) comes a daring Chekhovian tale of betrayal, accusations and desire, as the life of a frustrated art teacher in a remote Anatolian village unravels after being faced with sexual misconduct claims.

Sleep

15 | 1hr 35m | Screening from 26 July

Sleep is a masterfully unnerving, genre-bending thriller from first-time filmmaker Jason Yu, as the lives of soon-to-be parents Hyun-su and Soo-jin are turned upside down when the husband begins to exhibit increasingly disturbing behaviour every time he falls asleep.

Next Sohee

18 | 2hrs 18m | Screening from 26 July

July Jung's gripping psychological thriller exposes the harrowing impacts of capitalism through the eyes of South Korean high school student Sohee, upon her placement at a grueling local call centre.

CLASSICS

The Conversation

12A | 1hr 54m | Screening from 5 July | 50th Anniversary | 4K Restoration

To mark its 50th Anniversary, Francis Ford Coppola's (The Godfather) seminal award-winning neo-noir thriller The Conversation, starring the great Gene Hackman, returns to Tyneside Cinema in a glorious 4K Restoration.

Don't Look Now

15 | 1hr 50m | Screening from 11 July

The late, great Donald Sutherland and Julie Christie lead Nicolas Roeg's ethereally evocative horror classic, following the waking nightmare of a couple in Venice, haunted by the tragic death of their young daughter.

Star Wars: Episode IV – A New Hope

U | 2hrs 5m | Screening from 13 July | Book Now
