DECEMBER NEW RELEASES

Nightbitch

15 | Runtime 1hr 38m | Screening from 6 Dec

Motherhood unleashes a howling transformation for Amy Adams in Marielle Heller's biting feminist comedy-horror, as a stay-at-home mum escapes the confines of domesticity through a four-legged metamorphosis.

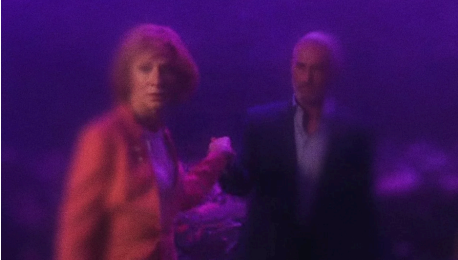

On Becoming a Guinea Fowl

12A | Runtime 1hr 35m | Screening from 6 Dec

The long-buried secrets of a middle-class Zambian family are unearthed by the defiant Shula (Susan Chardy) upon the death of her uncle, in filmmaker Rungano Nyoni's (I Am Not a Witch) surreal and vibrant reckoning with the lies we tell ourselves.

Rumours

15 | Runtime 1hr 44m | Screening from 6 Dec

Cate Blanchett, Charles Dance and Alicia Vikander lead this gleefully absurdist comedy-horror from the ingeniously surreal minds of Guy Maddin, Evan Johnson and Galen Johnson, as an apocalyptic crisis breaks out upon the gathering of world leaders at the G7 summit.

Merchant Ivory

12A | Runtime 1hr 51m | Screening from 6 Dec

This star-studded documentary tribute to partnership of Ismail Merchant and James Ivory - both in cinema and in life - collects illuminating testimonies from across their celebrated filmography (including Emma Thompson, Hugh Grant and Helena Bonham Carter), alongside a candid interview with Ivory himself.

The Lord of the Rings: The War of the Rohirrim

12A | Runtime 2hrs 14mins | Screening from 13 Dec

Return to the world of Middle Earth for Kenji Kamiyama's visionary anime fantasy epic. Set 183 years before Peter Jackson's iconic trilogy, this enthralling entry in the saga charts the journey of the heroic Héra (Gaia Wise) as she leads the war against the Dunlendings, alongside her warrior king father Helm Hammerhand (Brian Cox).

The Universal Theory

15 | Runtime 1hr 58m | Screening from 13 Dec

This beguiling, mind-and-genre-bending cinematic mystery from master director Timm Kröger follows a gifted young physicist as he becomes embroiled in a twisting murder investigation amongst the evocative snow-covered plains of the Swiss Alps.

Queer

18 | Runtime 2hrs 15m | Screening from 13 Dec

Luca Guadagnino's dreamlike William S. Burroughs adaptation is a kaleidoscopic, introspective odyssey, following the trippy search for enlightenment for disheveled writer Lee (a career-best Daniel Craig) after becoming besotted with the enigmatic young Eugene (a revelatory Drew Starkey) in 50s Mexico City.

The Order

15 | Runtime 1hr 56m | Screening from 27 Dec

Jude Law and Nicholas Hoult go head-to-head in this nerve-shredding historical thriller from acclaimed director Justin Kurzel (Nitram), as an FBI agent races to apprehend the leader of a neo-Nazi organisation across the Pacific Northwest.

Spirited Away

PG | Runtime 2hrs 5m | Screening from 26 Dec

One of Studio Ghibli's crowning achievements, this stunningly imaginative folklore-inspired fairy tale from director Hayao Miyazaki (My Neighbour Totoro) follows the fantastical journey of ten-year-old Chihiro as she discovers a magical abandoned village populated by kami spirits.

Better Man

TBC | Runtime 2hrs 10m | Screening from 26 Dec

This gloriously unorthodox musical biopic from The Greatest Showman director Michael Gracey riotously details the whirlwind story of the one and only Robbie Williams - cheekily brought to cinematic life in the guise of a revolutionary CGI monkey.

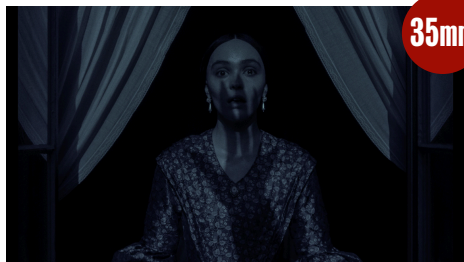

How to Make Millions Before Grandma Dies

12A | Runtime 2hrs 7m | Screening from 27 Dec

This tenderly observed, universally touching drama from director Pat Boonitipat, selected as Thailand's entry for next year's Oscars, follows a young man's pursuit of his dying grandmother's fortune upon becoming her caregiver.

JANUARY HIGHLIGHTS

Nosferatu

15 | Runtime 2hrs 12m | Screening from 2 Jan | 35mm

Robert Eggers (The Witch) presents a visionary resurrection of the legendary vampire mythos in this masterful gothic horror, as the haunted young Ellen Hutter (Lily-Rose Depp) is stalked by the terrifying shadow of Nosferatu (Bill Skarsgård).

Selected screenings presented from 35mm exclusively at Tyneside Cinema.

We Live in Time

15 | Runtime 1hr 47m | Screening from 2 Jan

Andrew Garfield and Florence Pugh share astonishing chemistry in this bittersweet tearjerker from director John Crowley (Brooklyn), charting the years-spanning, in sickness and in health love story of divorced Weetabix salesman Tobias and fast-rising star chef Almut.

CHRISTMAS CLASSICS

CHRISTMAS CLASSICS

It's a Wonderful Life

U | Runtime 2hrs 10m | Screening from 30 Nov

Considered one of the most beloved films in cinematic history, It's a Wonderful Life has become essential viewing during the Christmas season and a Tyneside Cinema tradition.

Love Actually

15 | Runtime 2hrs 15m | Screening from 1 Dec

Christmas is all around us - and so the feeling grows! Richard Curtis' rom-com staple unites an all-star British cast, including Bill Nighy, Kiera Knightley, and Prime Minister Hugh Grant, for the definitive festive ensemble love-in.

Bell, Book and Candle

U | Runtime 1hr 42m | Screening from 5 Dec

Silver screen legends Jimmy Stewart (It's a Wonderful Life), Kim Novak (Vertigo) and Jack Lemmon (Some Like it Hot) lead this bewitching Christmas romantic comedy classic, as a witch inadvertently falls for the subject of her love spell.

The Bishop's Wife

U | Runtime 1hr 49m | Screening from 8 Dec

Make this your new festive tradition; Cary Grant stars in this magical feel-good Christmas fantasy, every bit as enchanting and life-affirming as It's a Wonderful Life, as the lives of a struggling Bishop and his kindly wife are transformed upon the visitation of a charming angel.

Meet Me in St. Louis

PG | Runtime 1h 53m | Screening from 10 Dec

Blushing in the pastel glow of Technicolour, Judy Garland is directed by Vincente Minnelli (who soon became her husband, and directed the further classic musicals, An American in Paris and Gigi) in this festive 'year in the life' portrait of the Smith family, leading up to the Louisiana World's Fair in 1904.

The Holdovers

15 | Runtime 2hrs 13m | Screening from 11 Dec

An instant Christmas classic, generously warm-hearted comedy from director Alexander Payne, The Holdovers follows the unorthodox festive period for the cantankerous Professor Hunham (Paul Giamatti), tasked with looking after wayward student Angus (newcomer Dominic Sessa) on campus over Christmas.

The Apartment

PG | Runtime 2hrs 5m | Screening from 12 Dec

Billy Wilder's stunning romantic comedy, starring Jack Lemmon and Shirley Maclaine, is an incontestable classic that sparks with Wilder's typically witty dialogue and picks its nimble way between charming warmth and a darker poignancy (complete with beautiful black and white cinematography).

White Christmas

U | Runtime 1hr 59m | Screening from 14 Dec

Originally planned as a remake of the 1942 film Holiday Inn, White Christmas is a technicolour musical treat of snowy nostalgia starring Bing Crosby and Danny Kaye, as a song-and-dance troupe travel to save a struggling Vermont inn by staging a Christmas show to remember.

CHRISTMAS CLASSICS CONTINUED

Carol

15 | Runtime 1hr 59m | Screening from 8 Dec

Todd Haynes' masterful adaptation of Patricia Highsmith's The Price of Salt is a ravishing queer romance, in which Cate Blanchett and Rooney Mara fall in love in wintry 1950s Manhattan.

Remember the Night

PG | Runtime 1hr 34m | Screening from 14 Dec

This festive romantic comedy gem from the golden age of Hollywood, starring the great Barbara Stanwyck and Fred MacMurray, follows the unlikely love story of a shoplifter who falls in love with her prosecutor.

The Shop Around the Corner

PG | Runtime 1hr 39m | Screening from 15 Dec

Jimmy Stewart and Margaret Sullivan star in what might be the greatest of Christmas romantic comedies, as two sparring shop clerks inadvertently fall for one another as pen pals.

Christmas in Connecticut

U | Runtime 1hr 41m | Screening from 17 Dec

In Peter Godfrey's classic romantic comedy a successful food writer (Barbara Stanwyck) must cook up an entirely fake life – including a husband, baby, and farm in Connecticut – to fool a war hero who she is hosting for Christmas dinner.

Scrooge (1951)

U | Runtime 1hr 26m | Screening from 21 Dec

Bah! Humbug! Alastair Sim portrays miserly curmudgeon Ebenezer Scrooge in this beloved 1951 adaptation of Charles Dickens' timeless tale A Christmas Carol.

MR. CAPRA COMES TO TOWN A3 PRINT

ALTERNATIVE CHRISTMAS

Amarcord

15 | Runtime 2hrs 3m | Screening from 21 Nov | 35mm

This 1973 masterpiece from one of the all-time great filmmakers, Federico Fellini, is a wondrous satirical comedy-drama spotlighting daily life in 1930s fascist Italy, from the warmth of the springtime sun to the evocative snowfall of winter.

In Bruges

15 | Runtime 1hr 47m | Screening from 21 Nov

Colin Farrell and Brendan Gleeson are on hilariously sparring form as odd-couple hitmen, laying low in the picturesque city of Bruges in Martin McDonagh's deliciously dark, disarmingly poignant festive-set cult classic comedy.

The Umbrellas of Cherbourg

PG | Runtime 1hr 33m | Screening from 24 Nov

Jacques Demy's Palme d'Or winning musical tells the story of a yearning romance between a young mechanic (Nino Catelnuovo) and a shop assistant (Catherine Deneuve), and is a visually stunning winter tearjerker.

My Night with Maud

PG | Runtime 1hr 50m | Screening from 27 Nov

A devout Catholic is forced to spend the night with an alluring divorcee after they are snowed in at Christmastime, in Eric Rohmer's spritely, sexy classic.

35mm

8 Women

15 | Runtime 1hr 51m | Screening from 30 Nov | 35mm

Director François Ozon stages a ravishing murder mystery musical in the lush snow-covered surroundings of an isolated French country mansion, with a star-studded cast of suspects including Catherine Deneuve (The Umbrellas of Cherbourg) and Isabelle Huppert (Elle).

All That Heaven Allows

U | Runtime 1hr 29m | Screening from 3 Dec

This spellbinding classic Hollywood technicolour romance from director Douglas Sirk unites Rock Hudson and Jane Wyman for a sumptuous, passionate festive love story.

The Green Knight

15 | Runtime 2hrs 10m | Screening from 3 Dec

David Lowery (Pete's Dragon, A Ghost Story) crafts an epic, Christmas-set fantasy about King Arthur's nephew Gawain (Dev Patel), and his quest to face his destiny and his nemesis: the Green Knight.

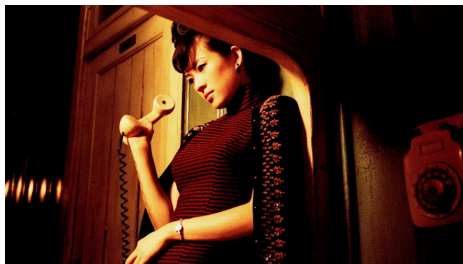

Fanny and Alexander

15 | Runtime 3hrs 9m | Screening from 4 Dec

Ingmar Bergman's magical period saga is a sweeping cinematic testament to childhood, ageing, belief, desire and dreams, granting a child's-eye perspective into the lives of a grand 20th century Swedish family.

2046

12A | Runtime 2hrs 9m | Screening from 4 Dec

Wong Kar Wai's loose sequel to Tyneside favourite In the Mood for Love combines that film's languorous air of romantic longing with a dizzying time-hopping structure and avant-sci-fi twist.

Brazil

15 | Runtime 2hrs 23m | Screening from 5 Dec

Take flight upon angel's wings for Terry Gilliam's Kafkaesque dystopian sci-fi comedy classic, as a government worker in a totalitarian future (Jonathan Pryce) dreams of a heroic, romantic escape from his soul-crushing reality.

Tokyo Godfathers

12A | Runtime 1hr 28m | Screening from 6 Dec

This touching, spirited magical realist anime masterpiece from visionary director Satoshi Kon (Perfect Blue) follows the transformative journey of three homeless people after discovering an abandoned baby.

L.A. Confidential

18 | Runtime 2hrs 18m | Screening from 7 Dec | 35mm

Based on the seminal James Ellroy crime novel, the all-star L.A. Confidential is a hard-boiled tale of crime and corruption which kickstarts in the City of Angels on Christmas Eve 1952 - otherwise known as 'Bloody Christmas'.

Eyes Wide Shut

18 | Runtime 2hrs 39m | Screening from 12 Dec | 35mm

Tom Cruise and Nicole Kidman star in Stanley Kubrick's final film, a masterful erotic mystery which involves a married couple who admit to temptations of breaking their state of fidelity.

Gather around the cinematic campfire for a chilling collection of haunting horror tales, first broadcast on the BBC in the dying hours of Christmas Eve throughout the 1970s.

Ghost Stories for Christmas: Omnibus #1

DRESSING JULIET IN LOVE ACTUALLY

by Emily Duff

Iconic, British, festive. Richard Curtis' 2003 Romantic Comedy Love Actually is also a pinnacle of expert film fashion. Its costume designer Joanna Johnston cleverly reflects the evolving styles of the early 2000s, with the styling of Keira Knightley's Juliet serving as a perfect example of the traditional 'girl next door' - or as TikTok have termed it 'frazzled English woman'.

Opening with her wedding to Peter, we are immediately introduced to her character as innocent and feminine through her classic white dress being paired with loose flowing hair and natural makeup. Her gown in particular, a delicate, ivory custom-made long dress, encapsulates the romantic idealism both of the noughties and of other character's views of her as she is loved by both her husband Peter and, unfortunately, his best friend, Mark. Although appearing sheer, it is comprised of a number of different layers, hinting at her vulnerability while foreshadowing the bittersweet emotions Juliet faces as she navigates the complexities of love.

Johnston's design choices for Juliet align perfectly with the film's overarching themes of love's many facets. The simplicity of the wedding dress, coupled with her later, more relaxed wardrobe of slouchy knitwear and tailored jackets, suggests a shift from the naïve optimism to the deeper, sometimes painful reality of love, becoming a reflection of the character's emotional journey.
